COVER LETTER (40 points)				Record scores in the column spaces below
CRITERIA	Minimal performance	Adequate performance	Exemplary performance
	1-4 points	5-8 points	9-10 points
Introduction (X1)	Introduction fails to describe the participant and/or does not clearly identify the position or reason for contact, and/or does not indicate how the position was discovered, and/or does not indicate interest, and/or does not grab the employer’s attention.	Introduction describes many of the elements (e.g. participant description, how the position was identified, reason for applying, etc.) and briefly addresses others (e.g. how the position was discovered, interest level, etc.) resulting in an adequate introduction.	Introduction incorporates all elements—the participant, the position or reason for contact, how the position was discovered, and genuine interest in the position—and ultimately grabs the employer’s attention.
Body (X1)	Participant fails to identify any skills or qualifications, does not explain interest, and does not indicate how his/her skills would provide benefit to the company.	Participant indicates his/her skills, with a general explanation of how the skills relate to the position at hand; participant conveys interest, and briefly connects the skills to benefits for the company.	Participant provides one or two strong qualifications and clearly relates these skills to the job at hand; participant clearly explains how his/her interest and skills can benefit the company.
Conclusion (X1)	The conclusion does not include a thank-you to the employer and/or does not note contact information, is not assertive, and/or lacks mention of follow-up after a given period of time.	The conclusion may or may not include a thank-you and follow-up to the employer with contact information; overall, it is adequate.	The conclusion includes a thank-you to the employer for his/her time and the applicant’s contact information; it is assertive and mentions a method of follow-up within a given period of time.
Overall Writing Quality and Grammar (X1)	Writing does not make sense; participant has written too much or too little; there are multiple spelling and grammatical errors.	Writing is average and includes relevant information and content; it is somewhat convincing to an employer; there are minor spelling or grammatical errors.	Writing flows well, is clear, concise, and gets right to the point; it is convincing and contains no spelling or grammatical errors.
